

Hanover College Advertising

SC 65

Overview

Creator: Hanover College
Title: Hanover College Advertising
Collection Number: SC 65
Collection Dates: 1869
Size: 1 folder
Repository: Hanover College Archives
Duggan Library
P.O. Box 287
Hanover, Indiana 47243-0287
Phone: (812) 866-7181

Collection Information:

Scope and Content Note

Financial statement sent by Hanover College to A.T. Stewart of New, NY, ca. 1869. Created by L.B.W. Shryock, the Treasurer and Financial Agent for the college, it provides a look at the financial condition of the institution in October 1869. Also included are an advertisement for the college featuring an image of Old Classic Hall and a postal cover with the same image and a description of Hanover that reads: "With and able Faculty, ample facilities, Tuition Free, Cheap Living."

Historical Information

Hanover College is a private liberal arts college located in Hanover Indiana right off the banks of the Ohio River. It was founded in 1827 by Rev. John Finley Crowe and is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church. The illustrations were created during the presidency of George D. Archibald in 1868-1870.

Administrative Information:

Related Items:

Related materials may be found by searching the Hanover College online catalog.

Acquisition:

Purchase

Property rights and Usage: This collection is the property of Hanover College. Obtaining permission to publish or redistribute any copyrighted work is the responsibility of the author and/or publisher.

Preferred Citation: [identification of item], Hanover College Advertising, SC 65, The Joseph Wood Evans Memorial Special Collections and Archives Center, the Duggan Library, Hanover College.

Finding Aid Updated: July 26, 2016

Container List

Folder	Folder Title	Dates	Notes
1	Early Hanover College Covers	1869	An envelope with an illustration of Hanover, a business card with Hanover's description and mission as well as an illustration that is also found on the envelope; a statement of the financial condition of Hanover College dated to October 1 st , 1869