

DR. MILLIS TO SPEAK TO SENIORS*SELECTED AS COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Dr. William A. Millis, president emeritus of Hanover college will present the Commencement address, according to an announcement made this week from the college offices. His subject will probably be "The College Man and Citizenship."

Dr. Millis served as president for twenty one years and he was succeeded by President Albert G. Parker three years ago. This year he has served on the faculty at Wabash College at Crawfordsville. The Commencement this year will be held at the local Presbyterian church, on Tuesday, June 7th. As is traditionally the custom, the church will be decorated for this event by the Junior class. A committee consisting of Grace Nixon, chairman, Stella Firth, Lewis Jacob, Harold Ralft and Dale Guyer has been appointed to have charge of this work.

It was also announced that the music for the Commencement program will be furnished by the College Choir under the direction of Professor Poland, head of the college music department. Prof. Poland will also have charge of the Women's Glee Club which

RULES OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES ALTERED*TO BE CHANGED IN HANDBOOK AND CATALOG

At a meeting of the faculty Monday night, several changes were made in the rules regarding student activities as presented in the student handbook and college catalog. The new rules are as follows:

1. Student activities are classified as: religious, musical, dramatic and literary, journalistic, departmental and athletic.

If students are advised to take a major part in not more than two activities of the above group in any one semester.

2. The following offices because of the large responsibility they carry for the general welfare of the college, require special conditions for election.

They are:

1. President of the Student Council.
2. President of the Y. M. C. A.
3. President of the Y. W. C. A.
4. President of Women's Government Association.
5. Editor of the Triangle.
6. Editor of the Revonah.
7. Business Manager of the Triangle.
8. Business Manager of the Revonah.

To be eligible for election to any of the above named eight offices, a student must be of Junior or Senior standing during the year of holding office. He must have made an average of 2.00 in the semester previous to the election or 2.00 for his average while in school, or have faculty approval for his candidacy for election.

A student may hold only one of these offices at any one time. IV. To be eligible to election or appointment to office in any student activity or organization, a student must have had an average

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The treasurers of the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., the Dramatic Club, the Revonah and the Triangle—organizations which have received appropriations from the student tax fund, as administered by the Student Council—are hereby requested to submit financial reports to be audited and printed in the final issue of the Triangle, in order that the student body may know how its funds have been expended.

SENIORS DISCUSS ANNUAL SWINGOUT*SPECIAL DUTIES ASSIGNED.

The Senior class was called together Thursday morning of last week during the chapel hour to decide on the program for Senior Swingout.

The members decided to present the usual features of Senior day programs, with probably a few echoes from the trials and errors of their college days, and a note regarding the future.

Members of the class who have special abilities along their lines have been assigned the following tasks: class prophecy, George Middleton; class song, Margaret Ricketts; history, Dan Lewis; poem, Eleanor Pickhardt, in spite of the fact that she won't read her own composition; and finally John M. Lewis will relate what Hanover will be like in the future, because, of course, the college and the students will need all that is willed to them by the Senior class.

WEDNESDAY CHAPEL
REV. J. L. PRENTICE*"REMEMBER IN THE DAYS OF THY YOUTH; SO IS YOUR OLD MAN."

Rev. Prentice, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Bedford, Indiana, and graduate of Wabash College spoke to the student body on "So is Your Old Man." He stressed the fact that what we are to expect in this life depends upon what we put into it. "The person we are going to be some years hence is the result of our own living. Our 'so is your old man' depends entirely upon your youthful living."

"The one thing that the world hates today is an alibi. Therefore, we must not rely on an alibi in our later life. We must make the most of our chances and not alibi over our lost opportunities."

"We have four ways in which to prepare for our 'old man' 1. Financially. 2. Physically. 3. Mentally. 4. Spiritually."

"If we expect to be financial successes in old age we cannot squander and be lavish all through youth. The students in college are on the road to distinction. They have the best chances to mold their lives for better old men if they will accept the opportunities."

ABOLISHMENT OF EDITOR SELECTION*TRIANGLE BOARD OF CONTROL ABOLISHED

The Triangle Board of Control was abolished at a meeting of the faculty Monday night.

This was the first year of existence for this board, and it has been found wanting. This system is too susceptible to political influence. Under the Board of Control plan, one representative from each class was elected to serve with the faculty committee on student publications, composed of Miss Fitton, Prof. Wickwire, and Prof. Howar.

In the future the editor will be chosen from among the advanced members of the Journalism classes, by the Faculty Committee on Student Publications. (Continued on page 4)

C. COMMONS WINS
GOODRICH ORATION*SIX CONTESTANTS ENTERED.

Claude Commons won the Goodrich Oratorical Contest in a field of six contestants Wednesday evening, May 18th, in the chapel.

"The Underlying Creed of a College Man" was the subject of the winning oration. The judges were Professor Mark Entorf, Mrs. Vern Hooker of Hanover, and Professor E. O. Muncie, superintendent of Madison city schools. The other speakers and their subjects in the order of their appearance were: John M. Lewis, who spoke on "Law Enforcement"; Clare E. Tallman, "Modern Youth"; Dan Lewis, "War or Peace"; Maurice Graston, "Woodrow Wilson"; Albert Platt, "Determination"; and Commons as the last speaker.

This prize carries with it a sum of fifty dollars which will be presented at the commencement exercises June 7th. This prize is made possible through an endowment by Mr. P. E. Goodrich of Winchester, Indiana.

THETA KAPPA NU
ENTERTAIN SAT.*MANY GUESTS EXPECTED

The second semester Theta Kappa Nu spring dance will be held on Saturday night in the local field house, according to an announcement issued this week by Mahlon Lemon, president of the fraternity.

Lou Perry and his Footwar were have been engaged to play for the occasion and a number of novelty numbers have also been arranged. Approximately fifty out of town guests are expected to attend the affair.

This is the last regular issue of the Triangle. During commencement week a special issue will be published by the newly elected editor.

This is also the last issue under the editorship of Robert Kelsey and the management of Dana Shelby.

The incessant success of the Triangle during the past year has been in the hands of these men.

DEBATE CUP TO GO
INTO CIRCULATION*ACCORDING TO ACTION BY FACULTY

The Philalaethan Debate Cup will be put into active competition again next year, in accordance with a recent action of the faculty.

This cup was given by the alumni of the Hanover Literary Society to be given each year to the champion debate team on the campus.

Since this society has not been active during the past two years, this cup has not been in competition. Previous to that time it was won once by the Betas, once by the Alpha Delta Alphas, and once by the Phi Gams, in whose possession it rests at the present time.

This cup becomes the permanent possession of the group winning it three times in succession. It will be contested for among the men's groups on the campus with one team representing the independent group.

The faculty also decided that it should have complete and final jurisdiction over any controversy concerning the cup in the future.

HANOVER CHAPEL
RECEIVES BIBLE*DR. G. W. BROWN PRESENTS
GIFT IN THURSDAY CHAPEL.

Dr. George William Brown, president of the American Bible Society, appearing in chapel Thursday presented Hanover chapel with a bible in behalf of the society. The society has been quite active in distributing a large number of Bibles and parts of Bibles all over the country.

Dr. Brown spoke on the three reasons he believes the Bible to be still an adequate spiritual guide in the year 1932.

1. The rights and wrongs of the Biblical days are the rights and wrongs of our modern days. The Bible never grows old nor is it out of date.

2. The Bible keeps us from adopting a wrong philosophy of life; that of living for oneself.

3. There is a strong consciousness of the peace of God in life all through the Bible.

CHAPEL SPEAKER

Rev. Douglas Vernon, the Presbyterian Student Pastor of Indiana University spoke in chapel Monday morning. He later led a discussion in Professor Barker's philosophy class on campus problems.

'REMOTE CONTROL'
BY DRAMATIC CLUB*MIDDLETON TAKES LEAD IN GANG MYSTERY.

The Dramatic Club will present its last play of the current season Monday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the College auditorium, located in the field house. The play is under direct supervision of Miss Kate Andrews with George Middleton, the leading character, playing the part of a radio announcer extraordinary, named Walter Brokenchild.

Other campus dramatic favorites in the case are Dana Shelby Robert Kelsey, Dan Lewis, and Charles Butler. There are many other promising new stars in the cast including Martha Carpenter, Thelma Ernst, Joy Kelsey, Margaret Rogers, Walter Bright, James Snyder, Herman Allen, Mary Frances Hale, Dorothy Breeding, Thelma Miller, and Claude Commons.

The local theatre-goers will have the opportunity of seeing one of New York's real knockouts when "Remote Control" will be presented for one night only. It has, to first commend it, the novel background of a radio broadcasting station as its locale.

Its murder occurs in a highly dramatic episode during the broadcast period of a certain Dr. Workman, a spiritualist medium. Every thing about it points to another act by the notorious Ghost Gang that has been terrorizing Chicago and the vicinity.

Through the play's action one hears the formidable voice of Chicago's police department broadcasting information and instructions on crime to its various members throughout the city. The warbling of a Junior League Society quartette is interrupted with a robbery. Walter Brokenchild, radio announcer extraordinary, is forced at the point of a pistol to carry on, over the air, even when the studio is held up by desperadoes. Earlier you have listened to and watched Walter in his most devastating style croon a theme song over the air, and string his various programs along with a voice with a smile in it in approved announcer style. There is infinite variety in "Remote Control" and not a dull moment. The cast is long and varied. The play's production is

FIJIS ENTERTAIN WITH SPRING HOP

The Phi Gams hold their second semester dance in the field house. The men in the white flannels and dark coat and the young ladies in their formals of various colors furnished a very pleasing atmosphere with the lights dimly lighting the place.

The ceiling was of white with crepe paper forming streamers from the sides.

Dr. Parker and Professor Entorf were chaperones.

Many alumni and guests from various parts of the state were present.

Hal Rothert and his orchestra furnished the rhythm for the occasion. He has been given the distinction of having one of the best bands in Indiana.

Looking Backward

This is the last issue of the Triangle to be put out under the able directorship of Robert Kelsey. All in all, he has proved to be quite capable as editor. The efforts he has put forth to make the paper a good one is highly commendable. The staff, too, has cooperated with him in his endeavor to make it a success this year. There is plenty of room for improvement, but it is evident that some rather good work has been done. Credit should be given his associate editors Loren Martin and Lawrence Evans, who have donated their services freely for the cause. Long hours in the printer's office have they labored ardently, notwithstanding this they have received no other reward than the praise of Miss Fitton, and their fellow workers. No one on the paper has contributed so much to its well being as they. Although, Della Lee Dawson has only held her position as copy editor a short while, she has proved to be quite an asset. It is no easy task to read proof. Patience and fortitude are two qualities it is absolutely necessary to possess for this office. The three editorial writers Dorothy Archbold, Carrie Leatherberry and Claude Commons have tried to the best of their ability not to make their editorials too boring. It is discouraging work in view of the fact that very few students read them. However that is not at all surprising, or unusual.

Editorials in all papers are usually the last thing the public thinks of perusing. Another person who deserves praise is Margaret Rogers. She is quite apt in ferreting out news. Have you noticed by any chance, what good sport write ups that we've been having lately. Mary Lou Clark and Howard Stouffer have both covered their respective fields thoroughly. Then the Society Editor, Aldine Gardner must not be forgotten. Nothing escapes her notice. The columns of Clare Tallman, James Corkey, Robert Johnson, and Horace Ransdell have added space to our college paper. Many a good laugh has been caused by the column, "Ye Old Philosopher." Ray Stewart has shown that efficiency is his middle name, by his good work as Sports Exchange. No nook or corner is overlooked by our quartet of reporters Brainerd Platt, Lola von Dahm, Wayne Kempshall, Robert Kunkler and Keith Malsbury.

Quite a bit of trouble was formerly caused by the illegibility of some of the written articles, handed into the editor. This has been eliminated somewhat by our official typist, Hallene Hunter. Last but not least thanks must be rendered to Miss Fitton our sponsor, cheerfully, she has given of both her time and strength to further the paper along. All that has been done is due to her guidance.

Ye Old Philosopher

Howdy Folks:

For the last time I sit down to write a few thoughts of a college senior. Soon my college life will be over. As I look back over my last four years I'm beginning to realize how much Hanover has meant to me. It has been the place where I have received my preparation for the life that is to follow. If I've had it do all over again I'm sure that I would come right back here, for there is no better school in the country.

What has Hanover meant to me? First of all it has been my home for the four happiest years of my life. Secondly it has been instrumental in helping me to form my philosophy of life, and to develop my character as I feel that it should be developed and lastly it has given me the habit of study, and the ability to know where to find information and facts when needed. The facts of the class room will soon be forgotten but yet I have the faculty of knowing where to locate them. This, I feel is what a college education has for a young person.

The young folks of today are living in a highly developed age of mechanization and a great deal more is demanded of them. They must be mentally sensitive, having a sense of evil, a sense of high ideals; the manhood demanded is greater, because of the keen competition of the business world, the professions or whatever type of work they may wish to enter.

The end toward which a college man and woman should work, is an end in which personality and individuality stand out. They should build up high standards and high ideals, and then after these have been built up they should live true to them—they should live true to themselves.

It has been my purpose in this column to give a student's attitude on various subjects that have been called to my attention and I hope that it has been fairly representative of the feelings of the students of Hanover.

FRENCH CLUB HOLDS PICNIC

LaCercle Français ended this year's activities with a picnic at the Hanover Beach last Tuesday evening, May 17. About twenty members were present all of whom helped cook their own supper. Afterwards, many games were played.

Campus Opinion

Question: What has been your opinion of the Triangle during the school year?

The Triangle this year has been perhaps the best I have seen in my four years at Hanover. It is newsworthy, has late flashes, and is in constant touch with the student body. It is enthusiastic, generous, and bubbling over with vitality.
Dan Lewis.

We have had the best Triangle of any year since I have been in Hanover. The news has been fresh and interesting; and of equal importance, the articles have usually been written in readable concise English, properly punctuated.

Paul Conklin.

The Triangle compares favorably with the weekly editions of other colleges, have found it very interesting reading material, and extremely amusing in that a lot of clever articles are included.
Midge Bettman.

Of all the school papers I've ever seen the Triangle surpasses them in news, sports and editorials—even if it didn't mention the fact that my car was completely demolished just outside the library door.

Shorty Conner

Have you seen the Triangle? "Let me have the paper for a minute." "This is interesting." "My how much better the Triangle is this year than ever before."

These and other similar expressions bear testimony to the success of the Triangle staff of the past year. In the opinion of most, perhaps all, the interesting news items, timely editorials, feature articles, sports news, and other articles on life at Hanover have made the college paper of this last year unusually acceptable. The critic and her staff of efficient workers deserve our appreciation and support.

Kate Andrews.

CLUB CHANGES NAME

A proposal has been made and will be discussed at the next meeting of the Science-Mathematics club to change the name of the organization to Science club, according to a statement made this week by members of the science department.

The statement, as given to the Triangle, reads as follows:

"During the past two years there has been a lack of interest in the presentation of papers and reports in mathematics, thus leaving the programs almost entirely to the four science departments, namely, Biology, Chemistry, Geology and Physics. It is thought that this action would make the name of the organization more consistent with its work."

INDIVIDUAL TRACK MEET

An individual track meet was held May 11 and 12, by members of the women's athletic department. Some of the previous college records were broken. Winners of the events were:

50 yard dash.
1 Mary Gillespie. 2 Viola Rueff. Time 7 sec. College record 6.8-5.
High jump.
Jean Shepherd. 2 Mary Lou Clark. 4 ft. 4 inches. Record 4 ft. 5-1-2 inches.

Birds Eye View of the Boat Ride

Many basket lunches on the boat revealed real ingenuity on the part of certain young ladies. The lunches consisted of everything from fresh strawberries to pickled pigs feet. Several couples brought canned goods along only to find that they left the most necessary article, the can opener. However, after a mad search, pocket knives were obtained to serve the purpose.

One young lady, upon opening a can of pickles, by the rail of the ship proceeded to throw the pickles overboard and keep the lid of the can in her hand. No casualty was reported in this case, although it was reported that several threats had been made by her fiancé.

As the afternoon wore on people began to grate on each other's nerves. About two thirty in the afternoon it was noticed that many couples of lovers were engaged in bickerings and heated arguments.

Had the boat ride lasted until six o'clock several fraternity pine would have found their way back to their original owners. However, due to foresight on the part of somebody, the boat landed at four thirty, thus ending any further strife or possibilities of serious domestic relations. The gang plank landed with a clank and a crowd, tired and dirty but happy, gushed forth eager to return home.

NOTICE

Will all those faculty members who have had subscriptions to the Triangle during the past year please send a check to the business manager for the subscription amount, if they have not all ready done so.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

Burli's Bruisers outscored Weale's Welders 4-2 in a hotly contested hockey game Tuesday afternoon. At 5:00 the Purple cows and Rueff's Russians tied

1-1 after considerable slashing and hitting. It was really a survival of the fittest. Both teams suffered injuries.

This is the first year for hockey on the Hanover campus and it has proved quite popular.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. George Shoemaker of Pleasant Ridge announce the marriage of their daughter, Geneva, to Hubert "Darby" Davis, of Franklin.

The bride is a graduate of Central high school. The groom is a Hanover graduate of the class of '27 and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. After his graduation Mr. Davis took work at Indiana University and at Terre Haute State Normal. He was coach at Gas City previous to the position as coach at Central which he has filled for the last three years. Mr. Davis has accepted a position at Lexington, Indiana, as coach of the high school athletics there next year.

Ellsworth Bear was a luncheon guest at the Alpha Delta house Wednesday.

Mrs. R. W. Hunter of Louisville visited her daughter, Hallene last Tuesday.

James Tidball, Burkert Friedersdorf, Graham Tevis and Scott Mills of Madison were guests at the Beta house for dinner Thursday evening.

Phi Gamma Delta fraternity will give its spring dance Friday night at the college gymnasium. The music will be furnished by 'ad Rotherth and his orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Entorf will be the chaperones.

Mrs. Joseph Hyatt was re-elected president of the Hanover Parent-Teachers Association, at its last meeting of the present school year, which was held last week at the local high school building.

Other officers chosen for the year 1932-1933 were: Vice president, Mrs. Frank Porter; Secretary, Mrs. Elmer Jones; Treasurer Mr. D. C. Hill.

GIRLS BASEBALL

A big league baseball tournament will begin on Hanover's campus Monday, May 23, under the auspices of the Women's Athletic department. Fans may follow their favorites by being present on Mitchell field.

Monday, 3 p. m. Alpha Delta Pi vs Independents.

Tuesday 4 p. m. Phi Mus vs Alpha Delta Pi.

Wednesday 3 p. m. Phi Mus vs Independents.

A beautiful pennant is awarded to the winner of this tournament.

SPORT ACTIVITIES FOR FOR COMMENCEMENT

As part of the commencement program, a bicycle race will be held.

Five bicycles will be procured and at one o'clock five men representing the four fraternities and the unorganized men will start at the confectionary and peddle around the point. The race will end in front of the field house.

Immediately following the race there will be a recreation ball game between the Seniors and the alumni.

WITH ATTENDANCE

FINAL GAMES AT HOME.

The Hanover baseball team has five games remaining on its schedule and all will be played on the Panther diamond.

Hanover has one of the best college teams in the state and so far this season has seven victories and two losses. Let's all attend the games and show the team we are for them.

The remaining games are:
N. A. G. U., May 21.
Franklin, May 27.
Cedarville (2 games), May 28.
Danville, May 31.

PHI GAMS LEAD
RECREATION BALL

BETAS IN SECOND PLACE

The Phi Gams are leading in the recreation ball race, with a record of five victories and two losses. Their final game will be played Wednesday against the Independent batsmen.

The Betas are in second place having won four games and lost three.

The Independents have an opportunity to tie up the race by winning from the Phi Gams. If they win their two remaining games the Phi Gams, Betas and Independents will be tied for first place, providing the Betas-Theta N. Gams win their game.

In the only game played so far this week, the Phi Deltas trounced the Betas 17-7, giving the Phi

Gams undisputed possession of first place. The game was featured by a triple play on the part of the Phi Deltas. Tallman aided very materially by walking off first base. The play was Fuller to Stouffer to Lewis to Hanovich. The three remaining games are Phi Gams vs. Independents. Theta Nus vs. Independents. Theta Nus vs. Betas. The standing at the present time:

	W.	L.	Pct
Phi Gams	5	2	.714
Betas	4	3	.571
Independents	3	3	.500
Phi Deltas	4	4	.500
Theta Nus	1	5	.200

HANOVER DROPS
NORTH VERNONFOURTH VICTORY FOR LOCAL TEAM

The Hanover college tennis squad won its fourth victory of the season last Tuesday afternoon at the expense of the North Vernon Athletic club, an organization composed of amateur players residing in North Vernon.

The local racquet wielders made a clean sweep of the afternoon's matches, winning 7-0.

With one exception the singles were easy victories for Hanover. Karnell, Malbary, Smythe, and Stewart won easily but Evans was carried to three sets before defeating Huckleberry. In the doubles Karnell and Malbary won an easy straight set victory over their opponents but Smythe and Shelby were extended to near out the No. 2 North Vernon doubles combination.

SPORTS EXCHANGE

It looks now like Hanover should have a track team. McGannon from Ball State broke their record recently when he tossed the discus 119 feet. We know that Big Joe could easily take care of an assignment like that. There is Kvetnaskus, Fuller, Sigleits and others who would be point getters. Hanover seems to be very successful in spring sports so let's pull for track. One way to do this is to give the winning baseball team your support and really show C. V. that you appreciate a winning team.

Have you noticed the last few days how the Yankees are burning up the American league? They are getting sensational pitching and with that it doesn't take so many runs and hits.

I was much impressed last week when talking with a student who will be in Hanover next year when he said the following: "Hanover looked so much better than the other team when they came on the field that I thought it would be a walk away for them. But they didn't seem to have the stuff to stay the entire game and keep up the fight." Now with a lot of new men coming in I think it a duty of the old men to work harder than ever for the coach which in turn goes to the school.

Over eleven miles of bath towels are used annually by the Indiana University athletic department. Helps out the depression somewhat.

It looks like the Hanover tennis team should receive at least small block H's. At most of the schools where Hanover has played the boys are furnished their equipment along with sweaters with the small block letters.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Survivors of the first round of the women's singles tennis tournament are Willis, Rueff, Clark, Henning, Hunter, Howell, Farrell and Dugan. The second round must be played off by May 24.

A silver cup is offered to the winner. This trophy was won by Ruth Winters last year.

Congratulations to Graduates
To the rest of the students, have a good time this summer, play hard and return this fall with a new student for Hanover

In the best families (or any other for that matter) that doesn't happen nowadays. Hence the United States Air Corps offers some attractive inducements to you college students for whom it has built a $10,000,000 institution at San Antonio, Texas, where they teach you to fly and while you are learning:

... Pay you a salary of $75.00 per month. Pay your living expenses.

Supply you (free, of course) with a snappy, tailor-made sky blue uniforms.

Grant you the social and military privileges of potential officers.

Pay your traveling expenses from your home to the new field at San Antonio. 700 men are taken in each year. The course requires a year to complete and includes over 200 hours of solo flying. Those who stay the full year are commissioned as Lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve.

If you don't like the training you may resign any time. For Example:

Should you stay three months and then resign you will receive $235.00 cash, your round trip expenses from your home to San Antonio, and about 50 hours of solo flying.

The service and associations of the Air Corps gives its members a very real distinction and a very noticeable breath of poise.

If you have applied and are ready to go, we have compiled information and tips giving you inside angles and dope that will be invaluable when you arrive at the field. If you haven't applied yet then by all means apply now. We tell you the entrance procedure and certain twists that make your getting in easier and quicker. The information written by men who have been thru the school covers all points from beginning to end that you are interested in knowing. This information cannot be obtained elsewhere; it is complete. Nothing else to buy. The price is $1.00 or sent C. O. D. if you desire.

STUDENT HANDBOOK TO BE REPRINTED*HOESSELE TO HEAD NEXT PUBLICATION

John Hoessele has been appointed chairman of the Student Council Committee for publishing the 1932-1933 Student Handbook. Margaret Rogers and John Foster are the members of his committee.

1400 handbooks are to be printed before July 1 for distribution among prospective students and all students enrolled next year.

Clare Tallman has edited the last two student handbooks. Few fundamental changes will be made. Bids for the contract are being received this week. Printing will probably begin either next week or the week following. Each class (except the Senior) is represented on the committee. Bids are expected from the Chapman Printing Company of Madison; the Graessle-Mercer Company of Seymour; and the Crawfordville Printing Co. of Crawfordville.

The college seal will probably be stamped on the front of the book which will have red or blue covers. The size will be the same as that of this year's book.

"Your book is two days over drawn. That will be four cents please". How many times have you heard this as you have returned your late books to the library? Many, many times. And no doubt you have wondered just what the librarian does with this money. Does she shyly put it in her pocket book or on the other hand is it really used for some authentic purpose.

During the last year the library has purchased several volumes with the money, some I have mentioned, but never has a complete list been published and so already mentioned, others will be here soon.

Sneidkern—Town of the Fearless
Pugh—Volume of Short Stories.
Stone—Bitter Tea of General Yen
Aleylella brightest Africa.
Bangs—House Boat on the Styx
Morley—Parnassus on Wheels
Rinehart—Tah

Stevens—Paul Bunyon.
Byrne—Messers Marco Polo
Cos Passos—Manhattan Transfer
Wilson—Chinatown Quest.
By an Unknown Deciple.
McAfee—Greatest English Classic

As you see there is a great collection of books that you yourself have paid for. Of course the college does not object in the least for your fine contributions, on the other hand it doesn't hurt our dear librarians to have to say, "You owe us"

One other of the volumes that has been attracting very much attention is the group of seven books published by the Greiler Society of New York. Their title is "Lads and People".

There is very interesting material in them and in fact before they were put on the shelf they were as follows:

Vol. 1 British Isles and Western Europe.
Vol. 2 Baltic States and Central Europe.
Vol. 3 The Near and the Middle East.
Vol. 4 Southern Asia and the Far East.
Vol. 5 Africa, Australia and the Southern Islands.
Vol. 6 Canada and the United States of America.
Vol. 7 Latin America and Central America.

As you may see from the topics covered one can find almost anything that he would wish to look up and it is very well told. In the general articles the why and the reason of the actions of many things are told. Well worth your time and very educational.

ABOLISHMENT OF EDITOR SELECTION

In consultation with the members of the English department and the retiring editor.

The business manager will be elected from applicants eligible under the recently adopted general qualifications, by the Faculty Committee on Student Publications, in consultation with the bursar and the president of the college.

The general rules governing eligibility to major campus offices, adopted at the same meeting apply to both these offices.

In this way, it is hoped that a student interested in journalistic work can enter the Journalism classes, prove his ability and ultimately work up to the editorship on merit alone.

age of 1.00 or more in the semester preceding election.

V. Delete from student handbook page 35, the following: "Students on probation are not eligible to represent the college, their class or their fraternity in competitive activities, nor to take part in dramatic or other campus activities during their probationary period."

The point average required for students entering from other colleges free from probation is changed from 1.5 to 1.00.

will sing at the Baccalaureate services to be held at the church on Sunday morning, June 5th.

A special feature of both the Commencement and the Baccalaureate services will be the organ preludes to be given by Joseph Justina before each event.

The Commencement programs have already gone to press, according to a report. The programs this year will be larger and more complete than in the past years and a number of innovations will be used in their make up.

The complete Commencement program appeared in a former issue of the Triangle.

a demanding one. But the show, by its sheer entertainment quality, repays every ounce of energy and work put into its production. It should receive a fine performance in the hands of our theatre group at Hanover. Capacity patronage should attend it.

ARCHERY.

Robin Hood and his Merry Men are not visiting the campus, as you might think. Mil Dugan's archery class is shooting off a Junior Columbia Round Tournament. Due to the inclement weather Monday the tournament was brought rather abruptly to a close.

Miss Dugan is awarding a Maid Marian cup to the winner of the tournament.

NOTICE

The Senior class play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be presented Saturday evening, June 4 in the auditorium of the field house. Admission 25c.
