SECOND FOOTBALL GAME A VICTORY. SCORE 60 TO 0.

Varsity Eleven Has an Easy Time With Kentucky Military Institute In Game Saturday.

CADETS ARE UNABLE TO HOLD "HOGGERS".

Stock in the red and blue went still higher Saturday afternoon when the team from Kentucky Military Institute which has twice humbled the Hanover eleven was overwhelmed on the local field. K. M. I. with the memory of two victories still lingering and a team which was as heavy if not indeed heavier than the Hanover team came here expecting easy sailing. But the splendid machine which Coach Hotchkiss has developed soon caused them to change their minds and at the end Hanover 60, K. M. I. 0 was chalked on the scoreboard.

The game opened with Hanover receiving. The ball was caught by Kehoe and returned to the center of the field. The ball was sawed back and forth until it was carried back into K. M. I. territory and they were forced to punt. Hanover then began a steady march up the field. Gains by Ramsey, Trotter and others carried the ball to the five yard line and after just five minutes of play Allison was sent thru for a touchdown. Trotter kicked goal score Hanover 7, K. M. I. 0.

Hanover again received and ball was returned 15 yards. By a series of line plunges and brilliant plays the ball was worked up to K. M. I. territory and Ramsey went thru for a touchdown. Score Hanover 13, K. M. I. 0. With but two minutes of the quarter left to play Kehoe after one or two plays got away with the ball and after a run of about 70 yards scored the third touchdown. The quarter ended with Trotter kicking goal. Hanover 20, K. M. I. 0.

The second quarter opened with Hanover again receiving and after 45 seconds of play K. Montgomery got away for a run of 80 yards and scored Hanover's fourth touchdown. In this quarter Hanover attempted a drop kick which went wide and K. M. I. chose to scrimmage on their twenty yard line. After a series of fumbles by the visitors Ramsey secured the ball and went thru for a touchdown. Score 33 to 0.

At the beginning of the second half for the first and last time Hanover's goal was in danger. The cadets had the ball on the five yard line, were held and Trotter punted. Ray Hufford recovered one of the visitors fumbles and got away for several yards and another touchdown.

Three more counts were made in the last quarter Ramsey secured a touchdown after forty seconds play, Trotter followed with another and Allison another, making a grand total of 60 points.

A feature of the game was the fast work of Ramsey. Another was the 70 yard run by Kehoe and the 80 yard run by K. Montgomery. Allison at right half got into the game at the start and could be depended upon for gains. In the absence of Capt. Voris, A. H. Watts played at tackle and proved that he is of varsity caliber.

R. Hufford at full play like a veteran and made numerous gains. G. Hufford, Brashear, McKain and Yunker held the line like a stone wall and made possible some fast backfield work.

Stanton at left end and Capt. Peck for the visitors were the stars. Stanton several times got away from interference and blocked plays.

Coach Hotchkiss has reason to be satisfied with the showing made by the team this year. In the two games played 107 points have been scored and their own goal line has not been crossed. Transylvania played K. M. I. Saturday October 4 and defeated them 19 to 0. Hanover meets Transylvania October 24 and from "dopes" should be able to add another victory to their list.

Miss Henrietta Losche who was enrolled in the Academy 1911-13 is this year attending the Normal Gymnastic College at Indianapolis. The college is in connection with Indiana University, work in physiology, anatomy and hygiene being given at the latter institution. Miss Losche is preparing to take up the work of an instructor in gymnastics.

The regular class scrap at De Pauw has been replaced by a sack rush to be held November first. Several sacks, six feet tall and stuffed with sawdust or excelsior are to be placed on the center of the football field. The two lower classes are each to be stationed under a goal post and at a signal are to charge the sacks, the class winning, which at the end of twelve minutes has the largest number of sacks behind its goal.

F. C. Millis '12 and wife were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Millis over Sunday. They motored down from Terre Haute with Mr. and Mrs. Dalzell.

Clarence Banta '99 is the guest of his parents Captain and Mrs. Banta. Mr. Banta is in the advertising business and has been very successful in that line.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN.

Effort Being Made to Increase Hanover's Resources to Half a Million.

Hanover is in urgent need of a larger endowment, and to whom has she greater right to appeal than to the churches of whom she has been the mother. She has sent forth double the number of pastors and men preaching as stated supply within the Synod of Indiana. Hanover has furnished from one to seven ministers to each of almost half the churches now in the Synod. She is the only Presbyterian college within the Synod which admits women.

And so at the beginning of a new century Hanover knocks again at the door of the church and asks for a return for her contribution of leadership to the church. She does so far and in the name of the church. She comes for more working capital in order that she may give to the outgoing Kingdom-builders of the future a training equal to that of the greatest institutions of learning. She comes with a record of signal accomplishment in scholarship, in character building, and in distinguished service of church and state, for the service rendered by her consecrated lay sons has been in no wise less than the work of her ordained men. What greater service than that of Patterson, Scovell, and the Coulters in education, of Wiley in behalf of the public health, of Hendricks in behalf of Constitutional procedures, of Fisher in behalf of honest citizenship! Hanover is not an experimenter in education. We want the ear of the church that the facts may be laid before Presbyterians everywhere. If pastors and sessions will open the doors of their churches to us, men of wealth will be aroused to respond, and the endowment will be raised. We stand in admiration of the Methodist church now raising a quarter of a million for Moore's Hill and a million for DePauw. We applaud the Baptists for what they have done for Franklin. That the Friends love Earlham College and the Christian Church is loyal to Butler University no one doubts. Our own Wabash College has recently carried to success a campaign for increased endowment. The resources of our state institutions have been doubled. If Hanover is to keep step with her sister institutions the Presbyterian Church with her great wealth must respond. We seek the interest and cooperation of every pastor in the Synod, believing that every worker in the Synod is interested not only in the welfare of his own church, and of his presbytery, but also in the welfare of the only co-educational college of his synod.

Miss Ada Colgate was the guest of Miss Vera Fisher at the Point House Saturday.

Sermon By Dr. Hood.

Dr. F. C. Hood of Madison occupied the Presbyterian pulpit in Hanover last Sunday, both morning and evening. He and Dr. Howk made arrangements so as to enable one to fill the place of the other.

Dr. Hood's evening sermon was one of unusual merit. He chose for his subject, "Faith". Faith, as Dr. Hood sees it, is divided into three parts, namely: scientific faith, faith of testimony, and the faith of experience.

The first embodies the people who merely fulfill the stated requirements for christian work and those who sought compensation for their work. This, said Dr. Hood, is far removed from the christian spirit.

The second, the faith of testimony, embodied those that wanted people to believe they had faith, but really lacked the true faith.

The third and last, were those that had the true faith in God, and had that faith because of their close connection and experience with God.

The whole sermon was delivered in Dr. Hood's admirable style and was appreciated by a large number of students and townspeople.

Dr. Hood left for Madison Monday morning after delivering a short talk in chapel.

Miss Esther Wray of Crawfordsville has been visiting Miss Mary Booz at the dormitory for the past few days.

Mrs. McEwen of Columbus, Indiana, was the guest of her daughter Miss Helen Saturday and Sunday. Mr. McEwen and daughter Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Newson motored from Columbus Sunday and returned home Sunday evening.

G. R. McLaughlin ex '15 was the guest of Phi Delta brothers Saturday. He came down for the K. M. I. game.

Miss Helen Busse was the guest of Miss Mary Howk for the week end.

George Amick '17 was called to his home in Scipio, Ind., last week on account of the death of his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Harding and son of Crawfordsville were the guests of Miss Harriett Harding last Saturday and Sunday.

SOMETIMES the older students, or members of the upper classes, fail to appreciate the energy and "wisdom", if you please, injected into the student body by the freshmen. As a class they have given us in years past many of our football and baseball men; as individuals they have been foremost in social and religious life, and have even lead in college standing. After second that is it not well that we take off our hats to this new element injected each year.

With all of their good qualities these same freshmen make their share of mistakes during their sojourn as freshmen. Chief of these mistakes (the only one we shall mention) is their persistence in following a worn-out precedent which should have been abandoned seven years ago. We refer to the so-called "Freshman Excursion". In past years this has amounted to a meet-the-boat trip on the mail line steamers with promises of dancing, a long moonlight ride, a jolly good time, and good things to eat. The truth is, thanks to the girls, the last mentioned feature is the only reality.

Coming from various sides the Triangle scents a restless spirit, a desire for novelty, a really good time. From some have come the suggestion of a boat ride to a picnic grounds rented for the day, from others, the suggestion of a boat ride up the Kentucky River, leaving Hanover at one o'clock in the afternoon. We see no reason why the student body, faculty and families should not enjoy a wholesome picnic on a special boat, at a picnic grounds, or in some other manner, rather than "burning the midnight oil" on an Ohio River steamboat, with the usual result of poorly prepared lessons next day.

Freshmen, you have not hesitated to break the old class scrap precedent, why not the old Freshman excursion precedent? Give us what we want and you will fare better financially than have those classes that have preceded you. Do not take the Triangle's word for it. Canvass faculty and students and learn for yourselves.

Football, Madison Second.

Featured by long delays and much argument, a game, said by some spectators to be football, was played at the ball park in Madison Tuesday afternoon between the Hanover second eleven and the Madison high school, resulting in a 0 to 0 score.

It was not Madison's fault because Hanover failed to score at least twice, once in the second quarter when with only nine yards Hanover failed to make its fourth downs and again in the third quarter when a forward pass was misplayed when Hanover was within a few yards of its opponent's goal.

Synod.

The regular meeting of the Indiana Synod was held last week at Peru, Indiana.

As usual Hanover men were in evidence and in positions of responsibility and trust. At the session of the Synod of Tuesday evening an address on China was delivered by Dr. J. C. Garritt '83. Dr. Millis was elected chairman of the Judicial Committee.

The work being done at Hanover was approved as was also the campaign being conducted to increase the endowment fund. One very important thing for Hanover was the decision of the Synod to meet here next fall.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Catherine Bevington of Fairmount, Indiana, and Mr Leslie Ord Winslow '13, of the same place. Mr. Winslow is at present pastor of a group of churches at Warren, Indiana. The marriage is to take place in November at Fairmount.

The usual talk of the secondary championship is now going the rounds of the colleges. Each team sees in Saturdays results some evidence that theirs will be the one to win the coveted secondary championship.

Wabash and DePauw were both held by teams considered inferior and with the smaller schools about evenly matched a close race is assured.

Some of the results of Indiana football Saturday:

Hanover, 60	K. M. I., 0
Butler, 6	Wabash, 6
DePauw, 0	Franklin, 0
Purdue, 34	Northwestern, 0
Rose Poly, 14	St. Louis, 7

SENIOR DINNER.

First of a Series of Enjoyable Occasions
Held at Sigma Chi House.

The first of a series of monthly dinners was served at the Sigma Chi chapter house for the Senior Class last Wednesday evening. After an elaborate menu had been served the class President M. M. Montgomery acting as toastmaster made a short but interesting speech on the past history and future plans of the class of 1914. He showed how this class might, by profiting by the mistakes and successes of previous classes, and by using the talent and initiative of the members of the present class, set a new standard for future classes. Professor Souter and Miss Harding were then called on for short speeches. Each expressed their warm feeling for the class and their confidence that they would establish a standard that following classes might well strive to live up to.

Mr Wilbur Nagel then set forth some specific plans that might be followed in the carrying out of this plan.

Some of the things that he laid emphasis on were the establishing of a fitting memorial for the class to leave behind it, the adopting of a special distinguishing feature for the senior class play, commencement arrangements, a class song and several others.

There was then a general discussion of the plans which resulted in the appointment of several committees. These committees were, special distinguishing features for men, Kehoe, chairman, Nagel and Butcher. For women, Miss Webb, chairman and Miss Hearn. Class song, Riely, chairman, Miss Booz and Miss Deputy, and class play Ramsey, chairman, Kehoe and Miss Webb. The temporary social committee consisting of Nagel, Ramsey and Miss Bach was then elected to serve permanently, after which the class adjourned until after the next monthly meeting.

Nature Observers.

A series of very interesting experiments have been conducted by Mr. Gilbert Blackwood ex '13 who is at present a teacher in the grade schools at Columbus Indiana. Mr. Blackwood has refuted the common notion that school children are not observers and by a simple plan has shown that children possess knowledge that even grown ups do not have.

His plan is to have a record chart on which the children note the various natural phenomena and then give a report of their observations. The time of sunrise and sunset, weather conditions, the birds and insects to be found, etc., are some of the things that are considered.

While Mr. Blackwood does not believe that children in the fifth grade are mature enough to study text books or biology and physical geography he does believe that they are old enough to realize some of the facts of nature on which these subjects are based and that they can make daily observations under his direction which may increase their interest and also give them a better realization of what is going on about them than they would gain from the mere study of inappreciated facts. Mr. Blackwood was in attendance at Hanover from 1909 to 1911 and is at the present time taking some courses under the direction of the college faculty.

Hanover Songs.

It has been suggested by several of the new students that they would like to have some way of learning the Hanover songs which the older students take so much pleasure in singing. In compliance with this suggestion the Triangle is this week printing two of the favorites. More will be published from week to week.

Hanover For You.

(Sung to the Stein Song)

Drink a health to old Hanover,
Wave aloft the red and blue,
Sing the praise of Alma Mater—
To her name we'll all be true.

Chorus.

For the blue sky bends o'er us,
And loud rings our loyal chorus,
While we all pledge Hanover,
Hanover, we're all for you!

Sons and daughters rally round
her,
Bring the best she gave to you,
Tune your harps and lift your voices,
Pledge your faith and love anew.

Life and love to thee, our college,
Songs of thee our hearts shall fill;
Choicest blessings be upon thee,
Grand old college on the hill!

Miss Harding.

Dear Old College.

There's a grand old college nestling
On the Indiana shore,
Neath the hill tops far above the rolling stream
Where onward to the ocean
Broad Ohio's waters roll.
'Tis dear Hanover, lovely as a dream.

Chorus.

Then dear Hanover to thee
We will true and faithful be.
And your name shall live in deed
as well as song.
We will cherish and protect thee.
And proclaim thee far and wide.
For our hearts all to Hanover belong.

Heaven bless the dear old college
In the future as the past.
May thy banner o'er thee
Proudly be unfurled
And our dear old Alma Mater
Be as long as time shall last,
Ever more light and blessing to the world.

Y. M. C. A. Social.

The Y. M. C. A. is hard at work promoting their good cause this year.

On Friday evening they met at Rykers Point, chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. Wadsworth for a moonlight social.

The girls brought boxes with lunch for two and the boys full pocketbooks and good appetites.

After supper they went into Mr. Rykers' and sang several songs, and then started back to Hanover. All reported the social a success.

Oratorical Association.

For the information of the new students and to refresh the memory of the old ones the first three articles of the constitution of the Oratorical Association are reprinted. The date for holding the election has already passed but the student body should start to work at once on the duties before them and bring the Oratorical Association into the position which it should occupy.

Article I. Membership. The Hanover College Oratorical Association shall be composed of all regularly enrolled college students who are members in good standing of any of the literary societies approved by the faculty.

Article II. Officers. The officers of the association shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, Treasurer and a Delegate to the State Association, who shall be elected at a general election held on the 22nd of November, 1913, and thereafter on the second Tuesday in October.

Article III. Elections. Elections shall be by the Australian Ballot. Ten nominations shall be sufficient to place a candidate's name on the ballot. A plurality of votes for a candidate shall be sufficient for election. Only men shall be eligible for election as delegate. All nominations shall be made and certified to in writing at least seven days before the day of election, and such nominations shall be posted in a conspicuous place by the executive committee for five days preceding the election.

The Sophomore class has chosen the following members for the "Hop" committee: Robert Stanton, chairman; William Johnson and Helen Reinheimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Binford and daughter Caroline of Crawfordsville, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Millis over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Louwillie Kessler ex '15 who is attending Moores Hill College has been elected a representative in the student council at that institution.

Rev. George B. Pence, of the class of 1901, pastor at Sheboygan, Wisconsin was recently elected moderator of the Wisconsin Presbytery.

In the list of fraternity pledges published in the Triangle of October 2, the names of Ira Allison and Howard Johnson were omitted. They have pledged Phi Gamma Delta. Mr. Allison's home is at Gardner Illinois while Mr. Johnson comes from Monticello, Ind.

Rev. John Boden '01 has resigned the rectorship of St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Evansville Indiana in order to take a similar position in the northwest.

F. C. Millis '11 has been offered the general managership of the Industrial Exposition of Terre Haute. He is at present the manager of the Terre Haute Spectator. The acceptance of the position would have given Mr. Millis authority over all of the exhibits and details of the exposition.

Earlham is engaged in the task of raising $325,000 for increasing the endowment fund of the college.

W. H. Nagel '14 spent the week end at his home in Norwood, Ohio.

Miss Webb Wins Contest.

The recent contest held by football manager Robert Yunker was won by Miss Helen Webb of the senior class. The prize, a maroon sweater coat with a Hanover monogram was presented to the winner after the chapel exercises Friday morning. The requirements were that at least fifty tickets be sold and that the winner should sell more than twenty Miss Webb more than met the requirements, selling more than thirty tickets. Dr. Millis in a short talk commended the winner not only for the energy and vim with which she went to work, but also for the spirit of sympathy and loyalty to Hanover that she has shown. Manager Yunker wishes to thank all of the girls who sold tickets and to assure them that their work and interest in the contest is appreciated. Misses Mary Carson, Cora Miller and Vera Fisher also sold a number of tickets and took interest in the contest.

Don Burk ex '14 of DePauw who won the State Prohibition Oratorical for DePauw last spring, is preparing to win the interstate contest which will be held in Columbus, Ohio, November 11, just before the national convention of the Anti Saloon League. Nine states are in the interstate league, and all will be represented at Columbus. These states are Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, New York, New Jersey, Florida, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. - DePauw Daily.

A resolution has been passed by the Butler Union providing that all Freshmen shall wear green skull caps. It was decided also that student policemen be created to discipline all insubordinate Freshmen. The reason for the skull caps as given is "That they might stroll through the campus without offending the athletic taste of the upper classmen".
