Describe your day on May 15, 2022.

Tell us whatever you'd like at whatever length you'd like. We think future students will especially appreciate hearing about concrete details -- What can you see and hear from where you are right now? What did you do for fun today? Did you cook or eat anything special? Who did you spend time with? Was today a day of rest? a day for religion? a day to catch up on work?

Today was a day of rest. Last evening Keith, Brett, Bo, Tyler, Emily, Emily's parents, and Keith's parents all went out to Thieme and Wagner Pub for a great celebration. Our parents are all in town because it is graduation tomorrow. I am officially graduating from Purdue with a Doctorate! Mom, Dad, and Laura (who flew in from Seattle today) will drive up from Cincy to attend. So today was all about getting ready for tomorrow - which entailed cleaning my apartment, painting my nails (gold of course), picking out my outfit, steaming out my regalia etc. I also had to run to school to print out Dad's To Kill a Mockingbird tickets Laura and I are giving him for his birthday/Father's Day. My printer was out of ink - but going to school was sort of sad. It was quiet. The students had left. The halls and classrooms were empty. Now, I am watching the Courtship (terrible show, but a great way to connect with friends) - so Emily and I can talk about it tomorrow after graduation. Cannot wait for tomorrow!

We'd also like to hear about what a typical Sunday is/was like for you at Hanover. Tell us about how you usually spend/spent Sundays at Hanover -- at whatever length you'd like. We think future students will especially appreciate hearing the small details of everyday life.

If I remember correctly, I would wake up late. My roommates and I would go to brunch. Most likely I would finish up my homework and yes, definitely listen to music. As I finished up my Senior Thesis the final semester I began a Studing playlist on spotify (lots of great soundtrack music) and have expanded it ever since. We would also play Ultimate Frisbee as well.

This is my contribution to the "One Day in May" project, which preserves the everyday experiences of Hanoverians on an ordinary spring day (in this case, May 15, 2022). I consent to its being made available to library users, and I grant Hanover College a nonexclusive, perpetual, royalty free license to use, duplicate and distribute it.
