Describe your day on May 15, 2022.

Tell us whatever you'd like at whatever length you'd like. We think future students will especially appreciate hearing about concrete details -- What can you see and hear from where you are right now? What did you do for fun today? Did you cook or eat anything special? Who did you spend time with? Was today a day of rest? a day for religion? a day to catch up on work?

Being retired after 45 years as an environmental lawyer, spent this Sunday attending Traders Point Christian Church Carmel then to Wal-Mart for our weekly shopping trip. Then did some work in the yard and planning a wildflower garden. Then did some reading.

We'd also like to hear about what a typical Sunday is/was like for you at Hanover. Tell us about how you usually spend/spent Sundays at Hanover -- at whatever length you'd like. We think future students will especially appreciate hearing the small details of everyday life.

During my time at HC Sunday's were spent singing with Dr. Wagner's choir or chamber singers at the Hanover Presbyterian Church, then lunch at the Phi Delt house, then to the old library which is no longer a library to work on a paper or senior thesis. Then dinner date at a restaurant in Madison or at the Hub on campus which alas is no more.

In the late 60's early 70's the music was classical or rock n roll, Stones, BS@T, Tull, Guess Who, for example.

If the house held a dance on Saturday we had to restore the it to a sense of normalcy on Sunday.

This is my contribution to the "One Day in May" project, which preserves the everyday experiences of Hanoverians on an ordinary spring day (in this case, May 15, 2022). I consent to its being made available to library users, and I grant Hanover College a nonexclusive, perpetual, royalty free license to use, duplicate and distribute it.
