Connection to the College (student? faculty? alum? friend of the College?):

Describe your day on May 15, 2022.

Tell us whatever you'd like at whatever length you'd like. We think future students will especially appreciate hearing about concrete details -- What can you see and hear from where you are right now? What did you do for fun today? Did you cook or eat anything special? Who did you spend time with? Was today a day of rest? a day for religion? a day to catch up on work?

Today, I helped my friend, Galileo Henneman, also class of 2024, created a club recently. Project Cocoon, which is an LGBTQ+ club dedicated to finding resources like scholarships and internships. Today, Galileo and Project Cocoon hosted a dinner. A 'Gender mixer' is what he called it. There was music, drag performances, and good food. Servers dressed up in their opposite gender expression, hence 'Gender mixer.' There was also a sales booth where Project Cocoon sold art from LGBTQ+ artists.

In all, only about 20 people came, not counting volunteers, so I think it turned out pretty well! I helped Galileo set up the main dining hall and also volunteered to be the check-in person.

I consent to my submissions for the "One Day in May" project being made available to library users, and I grant Hanover College a nonexclusive, perpetual, royalty free license to use, duplicate and distribute them.
