

Prof Garritt

The Hanover College Triangle.

VOL. 1. NO. 3.

HANOVER, INDIANA, FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1909.

FIVE CENTS THE COPY

EASTER MORN.

Joint Sunrise Prayer Meeting of
Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.

Easter morning at six o'clock, a large number of College young men and women attended the Sunrise Prayer Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall. Besides the regular services, there was special music by a mixed quartette and by Mrs. Campbell.

The service was conducted by Prof. Tyler. After the reading of the lesson on the resurrection, a few moments were spent in silent prayer. Prof. Tyler then spoke on the life of Christ and the importance and significance of the resurrection. He brought out clearly the point that Easter should be a time of joy and life. It is a time of awakening and happiness for all living creatures and should be a time of joy especially for the Christian because it is commemorative of the event which assures him of that life which is everlasting. To the Christian, eternal life is not something to be gained in the future but something that he is at present conscious of, something that he is living now. Thus Easter may be regarded as a period of rejoicing for our earthly life in that it inspires and enthralls us, and for our heavenly life since it gives us a solid foundation for our hopes.

ACCIDENT.

An Easter Sensation.

Sunday afternoon about three o'clock, Madison, in all its Easter attire, rushed to witness the unusual spectacle of a whirling horse, four frightened girls, and a smashed suit case. Misses Ruth Culbertson, Katherine McFarland, and Edna Connor were returning to Hanover with Miss Frances Culbertson, who had been visiting in her home in Vevay Ind. A suit case falling from the rig in some unknown manner, frightened the horse so that it immediately began tearing around in a circle. To the young ladies' chagrin, they were at once surrounded by Madison's Easter pleasure seekers. Miss McFarland displayed great presence of mind by springing quickly from the rig, while Miss Ruth Culbertson clung bravely to the lines to the last. Luckily Fate intervened, in the shape of a curbing, against which the rig struck fast and finally the horse broke loose with the shafts. The accident occurred in front of Fred Miller's Grocery and the proprietor kindly opened his store for the young ladies to use his telephone. Shortly, a lively rig appeared on the scene and an hour and a half later the adventurers arrived in Hanover, leading their horse behind them, as calm and confident as usual.

One third of the student body at Wabash are voters, but three of the faculty are too young to exercise the right of enfranchisement.

PRESIDENTS' CONFERENCE.

The third annual conference of college and academy Y. M. C. A. presidents of Indiana was held at DePauw University April 1 to 4 inclusive, at which twenty-five institutions were represented. The conference was addressed by a number of men such as E. E. Stacy, "Dad" Elliott, E. C. Carter, Dr. Gobin, and Dr. Bryan. This annual meeting is for the purpose of giving instruction to those men who will lead the Christian work in Indiana schools next year. A brief report of the conference was given last Thursday night in Y. M. C. A. It is to be hoped that our president will be able to put into practice some of the principles with which he became acquainted there for the betterment of spiritual conditions in Hanover. Next year the more important committeemen will also be in attendance as well as the president.

MUSICAL RECITAL.

Students of Musical Department Entertain.

Thursday afternoon the work of the Musical Department of Hanover College was shown by a private recital at the home of Miss Charlton. Miss Charlton and her pupils have studied hard along their separate lines of music, and consequently they were able to render a more difficult program than heretofore. The program was as follows:—

Bach—3 Preludes and Fugues—C. D.

Leibling—Serenade.

Mary Howk.
Carrie Jacobs Bond—His Lullaby.
Homer Norris—There Little Girl, Dont Cry.

—Loch Lomond.

Ellanor McLelland.

Bendel—Sonntag auf Glin.

Seobeck—Minuet Antico.

Norton—Faries and Flowers.

Willeby—A June Morning.

Margaret McClelland.

Schubert—Impromptu. op. 142—3.

Von Wilm—Agitate.

Margaret McArthur.

FOREST FIRE.

Last Monday evening an alarm of fire was sent out from the direction of Butler Falls. From the reports received, the fire had evidently started in Butler ravine and was sweeping the hillside clear.

The home near the top of Butler Falls was in danger of being burned to the ground, so many townspeople went to the rescue. The danger of a wide spread fire was doubly increased by the high wind, consequently, for a little while, excitement reigned. Finally the fire was gotten under control and then practically extinguished; altho danger was not altogether averted until the heavy rain, which came early in the morning, entirely quenched it.

PASTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. McArthur Has Call to Sullivan, Ind.

Last week Rev. McArthur, pastor of the Hanover Presbyterian Church, tendered his resignation to take effect at the close of April, informing the session that he felt it his duty to accept a call to the Presbyterian Church at Sullivan, Ind.

Rev. McArthur came to Hanover in 1902 from Lake City, Iowa, where he was pastor of the Presbyterian Church for four years, 1898-1902. During the four years '94 to '98, he was pastor of the Davenport, Iowa, 2nd Presbyterian Church. He came to the United States in 1887 from Canada, which is the land of his birth. The first seven years of his ministry in this country was in Minnesota, where he was pastor till 1894. As a Canadian he was educated in the schools of Toronto.

During his ministry in Hanover, Rev. McArthur has done much to stimulate the fellowship of congregation and community. Through his efforts was organized the Sunday School Bible Class, which has been a source of great interest on the part of the older members of the Sunday School, and which has an enrollment of about 40 members. The parsonage has been built during his ministry; and other improvements of some importance have been effected under his guidance.

Nothing need be said of the feeling of Hanover students with regard to Brother McArthur's resignation. It might be mentioned simply that during the past two terms in which he has preached to both college and village, he has spoken words of real worth to the college young men and women.

In going to Sullivan, Rev. McArthur steps into a larger field of service. He is called to preach in the new Presbyterian Church in that city. Next Sunday he will preach the dedicatory sermon in that place. That his congregation and community are very enthusiastic workers may be determined when we consider that their new church is a $30,000.00 structure, which speaks well for a town of 6,000 inhabitants. Although he goes to Sullivan for the dedication April 18, he will return here to preach his farewell sermon April 25th. He will move his family to their new home early in May. His daughter, Miss Gertrude McArthur, who is a member of the '10 class, will complete her college education in Hanover. His younger children will take advantage of the High School facilities of Sullivan.

Mr. W. H. Donner, the tinplate and steel millionaire, was married in Pittsburg, Saturday, March 27, to Mrs. Dora White Browning Rogers, a daughter-in-law of Capt W. B. Rogers, the president of the Coal Exchange. Mr. Donner is a native of Columbus and a former student of Hanover College.—Madison Democrat.

CHRESTO LIBRARY.

Although the libraries of the boy's literary societies have always been included in the main college library, those of the girls' societies have been kept in their respective halls. But last term, because of the prospective addition of some new furniture, the Chrestos decided to incorporate their library with that of the college. However the college librarian did not have time to classify and arrange the books. When the new fixtures arrived this term, the books had to be removed in order to make room for them. They were accordingly taken over to the library, where they are now being catalogued and shelved by Miss Garritt, the librarian.

The Chrestomathean Library consists of about one hundred volumes, a varied collection of textbooks, magazines, pamphlets, poems and stories. They were donated to the Society by the former members, and by Mrs. Gailey.

This collection will make a quite welcome addition to our library, and will certainly be appreciated by the whole student body.

HANOVER MEN.

Conspicuous at Washington.

Three of the most conspicuous figures at the seat of government this year are alumni of Hanover College. They are Robert J. Tracewell, class of '74, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, class of '87, and Dr. John M. Coulter, class of '70.

Mr. Tracewell has been Comptroller of the Treasury of the United States for several years. With the expiration of the Roosevelt administration he tendered his resignation to President Taft. But he has made himself so invaluable to the Government that Mr. Taft has requested him to withdraw his resignation.

Dr. Wiley enjoys a world-wide reputation for his heroic service in behalf of pure foods and medicines. He is at once the most loved and the most hated man in Washington, but his only enemies are the manufacturers of fraudulent goods. Dr. Wiley is United States Government chemist.

Dr. Coulter, with his family, was a passenger on the ill-fated "Republic". He was going abroad for a year of research in foreign countries. In the ship wreck he lost the manuscript of a valuable botany, which he had almost ready for the publishers. He is engaged this Spring in rewriting the botany. Dr. Coulter is Head Professor of Botany in the University of Chicago, and is known to every high school boy in the country as the author of the most popular series of botanies in use in the schools today.

Ralph R. Jones, Athletic Director of Wabash has accepted the position of Assistant Athletic Director at Purdue. As yet no one has been selected to fill his place.

The Hanover College Triangle

A Weekly Publication.

Published every Friday, by The Press Club of Hanover College.

First issue April 2, 1909.

K. P. Miller—Editor in Chief.
J. B. Allison—Managing Editor.
F. C. Millis—Business Manager.
T. R. Hollcroft—Asst. Bus. Mgr.

Associate Editors

H. M. Marble H. C. Weeks
E. R. Nowlin R. Davis
A. W. Priest

Office at the Thomas A. Hendricks Library, Hanover, Ind.

Office hours 10:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m.

Subscription rates; one dollar and a half per year; clubs of one hundred or more, fifty cents per year, per copy; single copy, five cents.

HISTORY OF HANOVER'S JOURNALISM

It is agreeable to say that Hanover College this year has undoubtedly surpassed all previous efforts in her journalism. This assertion is safe, however, only on the grounds that for the first time in the history of the College, there has been edited a college weekly publication.

When we review the character of the literature of the good old days, as it appeared in the Monthly, the Hanoverian and others, it is with a slight shudder of fear. One concludes instantly that those grand, old scholars were far our literary superiors. Yet, it is an enormous spur to our vaulting ambition for the Triangle's success.

The fact that their old publications—which are filed in Hendricks Library—furnish extremely interesting reading even at this date, is a fact which should make the present student-body look thirty years ahead. What a treat to read school-day articles from the pen of the boy Stanley Coulter, or Nathan Powell, John F. Baird, Judge James B. Swing and many others of Hanover's grand veterans. And through it all, may these and the rest of the alumni remember, those young College men of the '70's and '80's constantly reminded their alumni that they were expected to contribute liberally, any articles, poems or letters, which would "be for the interest of the dear old college."

The earliest student publication in Hanover was the "Gnivri." As the name suggests, this was named for Washington Irving. The first issue appeared in the fall, Nov. 3, of 1875, with Chas. E. Heckman and Judge J. B. Swing—the latter now in Cincinnati courts—as its editors. It was a monthly and its fixed price was $1.50 per year.

The Gnivri continued only through '76. Then appeared the "Hanover College Monthly," which extended throughout '78. The first issue coming out in October, 1877. On the editorial staff of this organ were John F. Baird, John E. Hays, Wm. A. Foster and Robert C. Lamb. The circulation price was $1.00 per year.

The journalistic spirit seemed to lapse then for a short period of two years. But again the necessity of student published expression was felt, and in September, 1880 the senior class established what was called the "Hanoverian," with J. A. Carnagey, W. J. Milroy and C. A. Keigwin on the editorial staff. The Hanoverian had excellent staying qualities and shows efficient workmanship. In the fall of '82, however, there was a split in the senior class, and the result was the establishment of another publication which came to be known as the "Bohemian." The first issue of the Bohemian was in September, '82, with Walter L. Fisher as Editor-in-Chief, and H. K. Gailbraith as Bus. Mgr. Both these papers were edited by the Senior class. The Bohemian sold for $1.50 per year, but lasted a single year, both Bohemian and Hanoverian going out Commencement '83.

But the spirit did not die. Nathan Powell, of the '84 class, got behind the pen as Editor-in-Chief and in the fall of '83 was printed the first "Hanover Monthly," (distinct from the "Hanover College Monthly") Assisting the Editor-in-Chief of this paper were Samuel A. Moffet and G. F. Crozier, the former ass't. Editor-in-Chief, the latter as Bus. Mgr. The circulation price was $1.50 per annum. This was the most durable student publication in the history of the College. It continued 'til '87.

At this period there was a decided lapse of three years, Hanover news was allowed to accumulate. Then in 1890-91 appeared the original "Crowe." That was the last of student publications 'til the annual of 1899 also called the Crowe. From '94 up 'til 1902, however, there was published the "Quarterly Journal of Hanover College." This was essentially a faculty publication.

March 15, 1905, witnessed the appearance of the first semi-monthly, called the "Bulletin." Like the Journal, it, too, was a faculty paper, and had a life of about one year. The last issue came out on May 1, 1906.

The '07 class, it will be remembered, revived the "annual" spirit and published the first "Revonah" in May, 1906. Dr. A. J. Whallon, now of Cincinnati acting as Editor-in-Chief and Bus. Mgr. The publication of the Revonah became the honor of each class in its Junior year, the '08 and the '09 classes having well perpetuated the custom. This year's Revonah should be no exception to the rule of constant growth which has characterized the three preceding.

So journalism has been and is in Hanover a thing essential to the sound spirit of the institution and the society of the students and alumni. In the past the alumni as well as the students have aided in the betterment of this feature. Even so today, in making our bow to the public in general and to the alumni, the Triangle Editors appeal to them all, as the ones on whom largely depends the success of this paper and, indeed, the success of our whole institution.

Last week the editors of the Triangle received an encouraging letter from a classmate of Prof. Garritt, Sylvester F. Scovel '53, President of the University of Wooster, at Wooster, Ohio. The following is an extract of the letter.

"I am—as I trust all Hanover's Alumni and Alumnae are—in heartiest sympathy with the ob-

Henry M. Lee

SCHOOL TABLETS, PENCILS,
FANCY STATIONERY,
PARKER FOUNTAIN PENS,
Groceries, Shoes, Hardware

OUR SPRING LINES ARE COMPLETE

Gents Shirts, Neckwear, Hosiery
Underwear, etc.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE

Ladies Skirts, Waists, Hair Ornaments, Neckwear, etc.

LET US SHOW YOU

W. W. Burke & Son.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW

ORANGES and BANANAS

—AT—

J. C. HILL'S

STARLING-OHIO MEDICAL COLLEGE

Merge of STARLING MEDICAL COLLEGE AND THE OHIO MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

Departments of Medicine, Dentistry and Pharmacy

Associated Hospitals:

PROTESTANT, ST. FRANCIS, HAWKES, ST. ANTHONY'S, LAWRENCE, STATE, AND OHIO PENITENTIARY

SESSION for 1909-10 OPENS WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1909

GEO. M. WATERS, M.D., Dean
Department of Medicine

H. M. SEMANS, D.D.S., Dean
Department of Dentistry

H. R. BURBACHER, G.P.H., Dean
Department of Pharmacy

For Catalogues and Information
Address,

Starling-Ohio Medical College
700-716 Park St. COLUMBUS, O.

jects and aims of the projected "Triangle."

The very figure is symbolical and suggestive and, being Hanover's product, I am persuaded ALL its angles will be right."

Don't be a knocker! Put your little hammer in your pocket, and everything will come out all right in the end.

The application for the admittance of the "Triangle" as second class matter at the post office, has been made.

Is this your "Triangle" you are reading? If not order it today.

If you will overlook our imperfections we will earnestly strive to do better.

GEILE BROS.

TAILORS

108 MAIN ST.

The editors regret the inaccuracy of a statement, in their last issue of the "Triangle," concerning the surveying of the Dr. "Hood" property. The property in question belongs to Dr. Howk, who will soon erect a home on it.

The HUB

Your Spring Suit is here,
why not have it fitted now.

We take special pride in

The SAVOY

A snappy suit, full of style, still genteel. This is decidedly a young man's garment. A three button, long lapel and dip front.

We are also headquarters for
"made to measure suits".

Why not get the best?

— HUB —

HUB

PATRICK LOWRY, PROP
STORE OPEN EVERY EVENING

Wall Paper

THE Largest and Most Complete Line in Southern Indiana.

5c PER ROLL AND UP

Calloway's Book Store

LANE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Cincinnati, Ohio.

Seventy-eighth Session.

Corporation with University of Cincinnati for advanced degrees

FOR INFORMATION APPLY TO Pres. WILLIAM McKIBBIN

ALL EAST AND WEST CARS
STOP AT

Hoffman's

BARBER SHOP

The Comin' Out o' the Triangle.

By RAISER RUFHAUS.

First a hurry 'n a hustle,
A little scrappin', a little tussle.
Professor Tyler n' Doctor Millis Scrappin' round like they's goin'
to kill us.

Harry Weeks n' Rusty Nowlin
Goin' round the College growlin'
N' what's the cause of all this howlin'?

Why the comin' out o' the Triangle.

Into the lib'ry ev'ry mornin'
Kind o' suddint, without warnin'.
Busts a important lookin' feller,
N' down he hikes into the cellar.
N' he is follered by some more Who come a-porin' thro the door.

N' what's a-causing' all this roar?
Why the comin' out o' the Triangle.

All the girls up at the Dorm
Re gittin' their intellect in good form.

A-writin' out o' inspiration,
F'r the comin' publication.
Manuscripts a goin' n' comin'
Pens n' pencils are a-hummin'.
N' what's a-makin' all this drum-min'?

Why the comin' out o' the Triangle.

Freddys, Margarets, n' Bessies
Sittin' up late a-writin' ess'ys.
Flunk in Philosophy 'n Psychology
Studyin' up on Etymology.
One great, glorious bustication
Preparin' for the publication.
N' why this suddint inflammation?
Why the comin' out o' the Triangle.

STATE COLLEGE INDOOR MEET.

The entry blanks for the State College Indoor Meet, to be held at the colliseum on the Fair Grounds in Indianapolis, Friday evening, April 28, 1909, have been received by Coach Nagle. F. C. Millis, captain of our team will be the only one to represent Hanover, and he will not unless he is able to get in condition, in the short time between now and the day of the meet. If he goes, he will enter the mile run, 880 yard handicap, and 12 pound shot put. His best time in the mile is 4:42 and in the half 2:16.

The baseball squad has practiced every day that the weather would possibly permit and is showing marked improvement. The stiffness and soreness, that always follows first practice is wearing off and the boys are getting down to business. With coach Scholler on the ground now, the team may be expected to develop rapidly.

Coach Scholler arrived in Hanover Monday and gave the team a good hard workout the first day.
He thinks we have plenty of material for a good team, and says that no secondary school in the state will have anything ON US this year. He is working hard to whip the team into shape for the first game which is with Franklin

They've put away their Physiolo-
gies,
N' the rats 'n mice 're eatin' geolo-
gies.

Greeks 'n Latins on the floor,
Throw the teachers thro the door!
English 'n Ethics full o' flaws,
F'r education they cannot pause.
They're workin' f'r a glorious cause.

The comin' out o' the Triangle.

'N long after they have graduated
'N 'been in Dun 'n Bradstreet rated,

If they'll just come back once more
'N peep in through the lib'ry door,
My! what a sight'll meet their eyes!

It'll quite stagger 'm with surprise.
The girls 'll be gone with their pretty dresses

'N in their place 'll be printin'
presses.

We'll tell 'm, if they start askin'
of us,

"The whole dern College 's a
printin' office
F'r the gettin' out o' the Triangle."

on the 24th. As we haven't a man on the sick list thus far, there is no reason why we should not be in prime condition by that time and so make the first game a victory.

About thirty men are out for baseball at DePauw. Their first practice on March 26 showed a scarcity of pitching material. Their first game was April 5 with Indiana Law School at Indianapolis.

It is encouraging, by way of comparison, to note that Hanover's new pitching staff is working out in a most enthusiastic manner. We have more real arms in the game
this year than for several years.
For no other position are there so many competitors.

Chi Chapter of the Sigma Chi Fraternity held their annual dance at their house Friday night. The programme of twenty-eight dances was danced out. The music was furnished by Stillhammer and Lines. During the intermission a three course luncheon was served.
Mrs. Millis, Professor and Mrs.
Boyd and Prof. and Mrs. Wolfe were among the guests. A. G.
Pheasant '08 of Wabash Indiana was here for the dance.

The Sigs are planning to put a furnace and a bath room in their house this summer.

Professor Bowman of Cornell University visited his Sigma Chi brothers Sunday afternoon.

HUDNUT'S

VIOLET SEC TOILET TALCUM

The softest and most velvety
Talc, perfumed with the true odor of the Violet.
Healing and Soothing to Sensative Skins.

PRICE 25c

W. H. Rogers

GEBEST HOTEL

120 E. Main Street
CHAS. L. GEBEST, Prop.
Gas and Electric Lights
Hot and Cold Baths

OPEN AN ACCOUNT

WITH THE

People's Trust Company

Cor. Main and Mulberry Sta.
MADISON, IND.

Pays interest at the rate of 3 1-2 per cent per annum on time deposits.

Acts as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, assignee, receiver and agent.

Writes all kinds of insurance on property.

Buys and sells bonds and notes.

Makes loans and investments
on approved security.

Fred Glass Leading Confectioner

ICE CREAM AND ICES
SUPERFINE CHOCOLATES
SODA FOUNTAIN
HOME-MADE CANDIES

Between Mulberry and West Streets

The Hanover College Triangle.

Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy.

SUIT of clothes from two standpoints—that of the maker and that of the purchaser. If the tailor has put his best efforts into it, slighting no detail, but aiming only at quality, it is a costly suit; but it is inexpensive from the customer's standpoint for it is worth every cent that he pays for it. Cheap, poorly constructed garments, on the other hand, are dear at any price. The tailoring which we offer our patrons is costly yet the prices are low. SUITS $18.00 and up.

KREBS

"The Store That Sets The Pace."

When thinking of Photographs Focus your mind on—

Spaulding's Studio.

Did you see it!

The Democrat Co. is going to give away to one of its lady subscribers a $50.00 McDougall kitchen cabinets. Its in F. L. White Co's show window this week. Its a beauty.

IS THIS YOUR TRIANGLE?

If not order it
TO-DAY
$1.50 per year

Copyright 1909 by H. Schaffner & Marx

V A I L ' S

The SYNONYM for all that is BEST in our varied lines of house-furnishings—

FURNITURE, RUGS, PICTURES, CHINA

High Grade for Low Prices

You are invited to come in and see, in many respects, the greatest store in

MADISON,

INDIANA.

CHANGE IN CASTS.

Because of Instructor Schnaitter being unable to attend practice and to tutor his math. students at the same time, the cast of "An American Citizen" has been slightly changed. The most important changes are Nelson and Millis as Barbary and Brown respectively. With this shift, Nelson takes the part first assigned to Schnaitter and Millis takes that first assigned to Nelson. Naturally this will cause a little extra practice but the change was unavoidable.

Everything went well with the Operatta practice until Cochran left. Then there was a big hole in the cast, which could not be easily filled. Finally the cast has been filled up, but on account of so many events crowding on the program from now on until commencement, Miss Charlton has thought best to indefinitely postpone the presentation of "Sylvia." It will possibly be worked up in the early part of the Fall term.

Last Friday morning two young men of the Academy awoke half suffocated and with a pain in their heads. One of them, managing to arise and stagger across the room, threw open the window. The fresh air soon revived them so they were able to dress and get out of the room.

It seems that the gas had come up through the register from the stove in the room below. The stove, during the night, had in some way become choked with ashes and coal, and this had formed a large amount of gas. Possibly a little more would have had a more serious effect on the young men.

As it was, they were compelled to visit a physician and to go to their homes several miles in the country. Yet they were back Monday morning hale and hearty.

COLLEGE BITS

Dr. Millis addressed the Hanover Ministerial Association Tuesday afternoon.

Have you heard the whisper of "Freshman excursion?" If not, you just listen for it.

Miss Irene Tech has returned to College after spending Easter at her home in North Vernon.

The Mandolin and Guitar Club recently received Miss Eloise Millis as a member. Miss Millis is the second young lady to join the club.

Mr Joe Swope, one of the fielders of the Seymour High School base-ball team, spent Sunday with some of his friends at the Sig House.

Misses Frances and Ruth Culbertson, who left last Thursday week for an Easter vacation in Vevey, Ind., have again returned to the Dorm.

The Dormitory girls are congratulating themselves on a new hall carpet, fluffy white curtains and a window box of scarlet geraniums. The effect is decidedly cozy and pretty.

Wm. Niklaus and D. C. Reynolds spent the week's end at the home of Mr Niklaus. They walked the distance of twelve miles and, improving their opportunity, they also kept their eyes open for geological specimens.

The Senior Preps again got together for a party at the home of Miss Anna Schlieter on Monday evening. The party was but slightly bothered by the Middle Preps, and one or two College students. A very enjoyable evening is reported.

Easter brought forth a magnificent showing of hats and gowns. Gazing casually upon some of the extreme creations, one wonders if a few years ago he would have believed that such things could have come to pass in this enlightened age.

The diplomas at Depauw will be printed in English instead of Latin this year.

SWELL SPRING SHOES

The At the EMERSON Quality Price

$3.50 and 4.00

STYLE
You are entitled to

COMFORT
You must have.

Both you get and more in the EMERSON Shoe for men.

C. A. STANTON'S SONS.

The Shoeists

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

PRINCETON, N. J.

FRANCIS L. PATTON, D. D., LL. D.
PRESIDENT

97th Annual Commencement, May 4th, 1909
Opening of the 98th Session, September 16th, 1909

College graduates of all denominations are welcome.

Privilege of taking courses in Princeton University.

Address all correspondence to

REV. PAUL MARTIN,

Registrar and Secretary,
Princeton, N. J.

Stylish Tailored Suits For Women And Misses

THE advance Spring creations are exceedingly interesting and the lover of correct dress will be pleased with the many novel and correct ideas brought out. Our assortment embraces all that is new and attractive in style, cut and material.

Beautiful and varied are the shades and mixtures of the fabrics—widely different from the past styles. Prices range from

$9.90 TO $35.00

N. Heruff & Sons

Madison's Largest Store

YOU'RE SAFE

—If you choose the—

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

Clothes

They are pre-eminently for the young "Whats Whatster" of the period and lend that trim, well-set appearance that will put you among the best.

The Spring models are as alive as an electrically charged wire.

In tailoring they make the average tailor wish he could do half as well.

Come in and let's talk clothes.

Marks & Benson Co.

THE HOME OF GOOD CLOTHES